Good morning! It's Nicole from 851 and I'm here this Talk A Lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is World Hello Day, a day dedicated to promoting peace and understanding through the simple act of saying "hello" to one another. It's a reminder that communication and goodwill can bridge gaps and bring people closer together, regardless of their backgrounds or differences.

As we celebrate World Hello Day, let's keep in mind the power of a friendly greeting. A simple "hello" can break down barriers, open doors to new friendships, and create a more inclusive and compassionate world.

Here's a quote to inspire your day: "Every 'hello' is a potential beginning, a chance to make someone's day a little brighter, and a step towards a more connected and harmonious world." - Unknown

So, let's take a moment to greet someone with a warm "hello" today and spread positivity and kindness. It's a small gesture that can have a big impact on our global community. Have a wonderful World Hello Day!

Thanks for listening have a Top of the Morning Tuesday 😊
